

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
HEADQUARTERS, UNITED STATES ARMY TRAINING CENTER AND FORT JACKSON
OFFICE OF THE COMMANDING GENERAL
FORT JACKSON, SC 29207

REPLY TO ATTENTION OF

Commanding General

11 February 2005

MEMORANDUM FOR ALL FORT JACKSON PERSONNEL

SUBJECT: Safety – President's Day 2005

1. President's Day is a time to reflect on the contributions of Presidents Washington and Lincoln, as well as all the other Presidents who have served our great Nation.
2. Whether you travel or enjoy recreational activities during the holiday weekend, please remember safety first. Winter weather can make driving hazardous. Keep a survival kit and essential supplies in your vehicle while traveling in the event you and your family become stranded.
3. Commanders will ensure that safety briefings and vehicle inspections are conducted and that each Soldier departing the local area completes a POV Risk Assessment. POV Risk Assessment is available at the Army Safety website <https://safety.army.mil>.
4. Let's work as a team to ensure everyone makes it back safely from the holiday weekend.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Abraham J. Turner", is written over a horizontal line.

ABRAHAM J. TURNER
Brigadier General, U.S. Army
Commanding

DISTRIBUTION:
C&S